

Internet Safety Advice and Guidance for EAL and SEN users.
 Advice compiled here was created using Widgeit Symbol by kidSMART as part of their SMART targets for E-Safety. We have compiled a reduced version using key facts from each SEN SMART documents

To stay safe do not give out personal information.

Do not give out your email, address, mobile or phone number.

Do not give out your friends or family's information.

Give yourself a nickname online.

Pretending to be someone else can be fun.

Be careful, you don't know when someone is pretending.

Someone may want to lie and be cruel.

If you are unsure, ask an adult for advice.

Keep your blog and profiles private on social networking sites.

Don't open emails from strangers.

Emails or attachments may contain viruses.

Emails or attachments may contain unpleasant photos.

Emails may have links to inappropriate websites.

Internet Safety Advice and Guidance for EAL and SEN users.
 Advice compiled here was created using Widge Symbols by kidSMART as part of their SMART targets for E-Safety. We have compiled a reduced version using key facts from each SEN SMART documents

People may ask you to do things you don't want.

You can report these people.

Report people to www.Thinkuknow.co.uk

You can talk to a best friend, parent or teacher.

Cyber bullying is when people are mean to you online.

Some things you see online may upset you.

It's not your fault if you see something bad.

You have choices if you feel uncomfortable.

Stop the conversation.

Leave the chatroom.

Block the person making you feel uncomfortable.

Save the conversation and show a trusted adult.

You can report people to the chat facility or police.