Head Teacher Message:

The highlight of this week was definitely announcing the Year Six pupil leaders for this year! As with everything else, this took us longer to do than usual - but I'm slowly getting used to the way we are having to work around covid. It was so lovely to see the way the classmates supported their peers when they were called out in assembly. A very proud moment for our new Head Pupils, House Captains and Vice Captains.

As we end the first half term of what is turning out to be an unprecedented year, it is really important that we keep looking for positives. It is so important to our mental health. I cannot thank parents, pupils and staff enough for your continued support these past few weeks. Particularly those parents who go to the extra effort of emailing us to express your gratitude. I echo your sentiments in thanking the staff for all they continue to do.

Have a safe and peaceful half term.

INDEPENDENCE

The value we will be focussing on next half term is Independence. Try and encourage your child to be more independent over half term. Choose one area to work on together and keep encouraging them to be independent. I look forward to finding out what they have been up to when we return to school.

Speech Making:

Children have been working so hard on their Black History Month Speeches. This year we have found innovative ways of doing social distanced presentations. Please have a look on the school website to see the winning speeches.
