This week's learning...

This week, Nursery will be reading "The Wild Woods". We will use our senses to explore our local environment and go on a scavenger hunt.

We will also practise writing a list and making marks to represent numbers.

STAR Moments

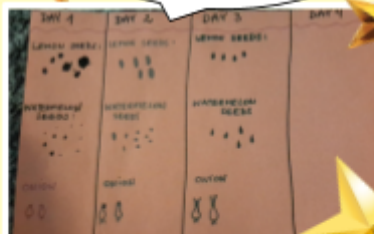

These are the petals. And this is stem and leaves.

Andy is learning to hold and control a mark making tool.

I am folding my T-shirts.

I am observing how my seeds change everyday.

We joined our LIVE lesson for singing, listening games, story time and Fit Friday.

More fun for your brain

- Mark making fun - put flour in a tray and use your finger to make different shapes or write your name.
- Restaurant - use the things in your house to make a restaurant/cafe.
- Hide and seek.
- Build a den and have a tea party for your favourite toys.
