

Dear Parents,

Finally, after last week's blustery weather, we are finally seeing a few summery days. Hopefully this weather will continue next week and you will be able to enjoy more outdoor activities with your children over half term and the bank holiday weekend. This would be a great start to next half term's curriculum focus which is Healthy Hearts.

Unfortunately, we have again seen tensions between parents in the community this week. I now need to firmly remind all parents that the school expects all parents to behave in an acceptable manner at all times. This is an inclusive school that welcomes all children and families from every background. We will definitely not tolerate any racist, homophobic or xenophobic behaviour. This is a RIGHTS respecting school and we expect our parents to respect this. Next week we will all have a much needed break. Please adhere to all covid guidance to continue to keep our community as safe as possible.

Best wishes
Ms Von

The Masked Reader

This week, to further encourage and inspire our pupils to take up an interest in reading the English team organised a very special activity. Each day a new 'Masked Reader' would appear and read a snippet of one of their favourite books. The pupils would then guess as a class who they thought the reader behind the mask could be.

The activity caused such a buzz around the school that we have decided to share the videos with you as well!

Check out the link below and see if you can guess the faces behind the masks!

Little Stars

After many years of planning and saving, I am delighted to tell you that we will be opening the Little Stars Daycare provision for 0-4 year olds in September. This has been a particular passion of mine and I am very pleased with the outcomes. We are now enrolling for September starts. This is a private daycare provision run by the school catering mainly for working parents who need all day childcare places.

Please email to express your interest at littlestarsdaycare@star.newham.sch.uk

Or contact the school office to speak to the daycare manager, Ms Tammy Lewis.
