This weeks learning..

This half term our topic is going to be focused on Earth our home.

In English We have explored leaflets this week explaining about Deforestation. Next week we will be looking at preparing for our debate, 'Deforestation for Farming: Sustainable or not?'

In Maths we will be moving on to look at volume and capacity. In this topic, we will be learning how to compare the volume and capacity of a range of liquids and accurately convert between units of liquids.

In Science: We will be taking a look at seed dispersal and how the design of a dandelion seed helps a plant to spread away from the parent plant to produce more plants elsewhere.

In Geography We will be taking a closer look at where our food comes from! We are going to look at how food consumption has increased leading to a change in trade which is now worldwide!

In Art : We will be creating our final piece! We will use a printing block we have designed to create a rainforest wallpaper. We will then collage an orangutan on top of our printed piece.

In R.E. this week we will be summarising our topic and returning to our Big Question: How are symbols and sayings important in Religion .

In Computing. We will be using different software to create a persuasive presentation about sustainability. We will be using Explain Everything, web browsers and Do Ink for some green screen action!

In R.S.H.E. we will be answering our Coping Skills question: Why do we learn coping skills?
