NURSERY Newsletter

This week's learning

Well done to all our children for their fantastic effort during World Book Day. All the costumes were amazing and we had a great week of reading for pleasure.

We have another exciting week ahead of us in Nursery. We will be focusing on Abstract Expressionism inspired by Jackson Pollock. We will explore a variety of painting tools and choose which ones are best to use for the painting. As well as what we notice.

Attendance

AM: 88.4%

PM: 80.2%

Please bring your child to school everyday to ensure they do not miss learning opportunities.

Star Moments

We dressed up for World Book Day!

This week's happy leaf went to Emmie AM/ Amani PM for demonstrating great persevering skills at Nursery. Read next week's newsletter to find out who will be getting a happy leaf.

DON'T FORGET!

- Please keep on sharing your WOW moments from home on Tapestry. We loved seeing what children were up to over half term. We would love to see more of what children did over half term so please upload more photos on Tapestry.
- Provide spare clothes in your child's bag: socks, underwear, bottoms, tops.
- Label all clothing, shoes and bags.

BOOK OF THE WEEK

Book of fantastic first poems

RHYMES TO PRACTISE

- Jack and Jill
- Jelly on a plate

OVER TO YOU! HOME LEARNING

- This term's theme is EXPRESS YOURSELF!!
- You can use this topic as an opportunity to talk to your child about ways we they can express their interests and hobbies as well as using a variety of art tools to explore paint.
