

Weekly Newsletter - 26/05/23

Dear Parents and Carers,

All our pupils and staff have been working hard this week as we finish the half term. We are really happy to see the sun out and the temperatures rising, therefore we would love you to make the most of the warmer climate and enjoy all that London has to offer.

Some of our pupils have already been exploring London. We are ambitious for our children, therefore some of our youngest learners travelled to Buckingham Palace and were lucky enough to see the impressive changing of the guard. We have also seen Year 2 visit the Olympic Park, and Nursery and our 'Little Stars' in the day care have been exploring the park.

Star has also been full of song this week, as year 4 continue to prepare for 'The Festival of Voices'. We welcomed our partner schools to Star this week for a full rehearsal.

Finally, well done pupils in year 2 and 6 who have been completing their standardised tests this half term, next it will be year 4 and year 1!

Have a wonderful break and we will see you on Monday 5th June.

Best wishes,
Ms Von

Pupil Leader's Weekly Reflection

Next half term's theme is 'support'. Take time over the half term break to think about how you can support others to be the best they can be. Wishing you all a restful holiday.

Year Five Road Safety

As part of the Road Watch Safety Scheme, Year 5 children had the exciting opportunity to join officers from the Metropolitan Police Force to educate individuals on driving safely in our local community.

Buckingham Palace

It was an absolute pleasure taking our wonderful Reception children to Buckingham Palace. We were lucky enough to watch the Changing of the Guard and were blown away by the marching, drumming and horses! All of the children demonstrated fantastic learning behaviours and we were so proud of each one of you!

Teddy bear picnic

The Nursery children had a fantastic time going on a picnic. We explored healthy snacks that makes us strong as well as joined in with "The very hungry caterpillar" story. What a fantastic sunny day we had!
