Our topic is...Human Rights.

In Reading, we will continue following the journey of Nat from the narrative 'Freedom' to discover how he finally found freedom as a slave.

In English, we will be using the knowledge and skills that we have developed over to last two weeks to plan and write our very own narrative.

In Maths, we will be consolidating how to use the written method for multiplication in order to solve a range of problems.

In Science, we will be learning all about how animals have evolved and adapted over time to live in extreme environments.

In History, we will be learning about how the slave trade and slavery was abolished in Britain.

In RE, we will be learning about the importance of places of worship and how this is shared in different religions.

In Computing, we will be learning about the importance of internet addresses and recognising that data is transferred using agreed methods.

In Art, we will be using a range of tones, colours and techniques to represent different objects in a portrait.
