

In the Classroom
	Human Rights	Media Mayhem	The Earth Our Home	Express Yourself	Global Treasures	Healthy Hearts
EYFS	Events in Living Memory	Aspects of Change	Geography Focus		Dinosaurs (Nursery) Royal Family and Queen Elizabeth 2 (Reception)	Geography Focus
Year One	Curriculum Focus- Lives of key Individuals in the past who have contributed to national and international achievements (Olaudah Equiano, Mary Seacole, Betty Campbell, Floella Benjamin) How people's lives have shaped this nation and how Britain has influenced and been influenced by the wider world. Black History The characteristic features of a past non-European society.	Curriculum Focus- Events beyond living memory First Flight (The achievements and follies of mankind)	Geography Focus	Exploring the life of Key Artist Wasily Kadinsky (The achievements and follies of mankind)	Curriculum Focus- Changes within living memory Toys (The achievements and follies of mankind)	Geography Focus
Year Two	Curriculum Focus-	Curriculum Focus- Significant events in a locality The Great Fire of London (The achievements and follies of mankind)	Geography Focus	Exploring the life of Key Artist Diego Rivera (The achievements and follies of mankind)	Curriculum Focus- Changes within living memory Transport (The achievements and follies of mankind)	Geography Focus
Year Three	Curriculum Focus- British and World History How people's lives have shaped this nation and how Britain has influenced and been influenced by the wider world. A study of an aspect or theme in British history that extends pupils' chronological knowledge beyond 1066. Black History The characteristic features of a past non-European society. Emmilene Pankhurst, Emily Wilding-Davison, Harriet Tubman, Rosa Parks	Curriculum Focus- Achievements of the First Civilizations Ancient Egypt (The characteristic features of a past non-European society) (The nature of ancient civilisations)	Geography Focus	Exploring the life of Key Artist Joan Miro (The achievements and follies of mankind)	Curriculum Focus- Changes in Britain from Bronze to Iron Age Stone, Bronze and Iron Age (The nature of ancient civilisations)	Geography Focus
Year Four	Curriculum Focus- World History Black History: Martin Luther King,	Curriculum Focus- A local History Study	Geography Focus	Exploring the life of Key Artist Andy Warhol	Curriculum Focus- Impact of the Roman Empire	Geography Focus

	Malcolm X, W.E.B. Du Bois, Rosa Parks, Rev. Oliver Brown (The characteristic features of a past non-European society)	Industrial Revolution (The achievements and follies of mankind) (The expansion and dissolution of empires)		(The achievements and follies of mankind)	(The expansion and dissolution of empires)
Year Five	Curriculum Focus- British and World History A study of an aspect or theme in British history that extends pupils' chronological knowledge beyond 1066 Black History: Windrush (The characteristic features of a past non-European society)	Curriculum Focus- A local History Study World War 2 (The achievements and follies of mankind) (The expansion and dissolution of empires)	Geography Focus	Exploring the life of Key Artist Vincent Van Gogh (The achievements and follies of mankind)	Curriculum Focus- The Settlement of Britain Vikings (The expansion and dissolution of empires)	Geography Focus
Year Six	Curriculum Focus- World History Black History: transatlantic slave trade A study of an aspect or theme in British history that extends pupils' chronological knowledge beyond 1066. The characteristic features of a past non-European society.	Curriculum Focus- Ancient Greece Ancient Greece (The nature of ancient civilisations) (The expansion and dissolution of empires)	Pupils might find out about the significance of the work of scientists such as Carl Linnaeus, a pioneer of classification.	Exploring the life of Key Artist David Hockney (The achievements and follies of mankind)	Curriculum Focus- A non-European Society The Mayans (The characteristic features of a past non-European society)	Geography Focus

